

On June 11, 2009, We Want to Hear About Your Day. Tell Us All About It

UL&STD Wants to Know: What's It Like to Walk in Your Shoes?

What's it really like to work on an auto assembly line, to be a nurse in an emergency room, to teach, to sort or deliver mail, to work in an office, or in a grocery store? Do you spend your days in a factory, on high iron, in a coal mine, building ships, digging ditches, fixing phone lines, as a printer, flight attendant, fire fighter, police officer, emergency medical technician? Are you a professional athlete, a broadcaster, a news reporter, a stage hand, actor or technician, librarian, school teacher?

Are you on layoff, or unemployed? Retired? Tell us about your day and your experiences.

And, keep it to 150 words or less.

Give us a look at how your day went on June 11, 2009. We'll feature the best submissions in the Label Letter and on the Union Label website.

Get ready now. Send a digital photo or film print of yourself at work along with a short summary (150 words or less). If you're sending snapshots or printed photos, mail to:

Union Label & Service Trades Department
Attn: Walk in My Shoes,
815 16th St., NW, Washington, DC 20006.

You can send digital photos and entry information by e-mail to: info@unionlabel.org. Digital photos should be at least 300 dpi (high resolution) to be adequate for printing. Make sure you include your name, your union and include complete contact information (best phone number and mailing address as well as e-mail).

Tell us what your work day was like on "Walk in My Shoes Day"—the good, bad and the ugly. Tough commute? Boss grumpy? Big challenge? Big accomplishment?
